

British Airways – Young Flyers Aged 14 and 15 Travelling Alone

Effective: Flights departing post 28th February 2021

This form must be completed by the parent/legal guardian (“you”) of the young flyer(s) aged 14 and 15 years old, if travelling unaccompanied by someone over the age of 16 years old.

Failure by the young flyer(s) to carry this form at all times or present it when requested by British Airways’ personnel or agents may result in refusal of carriage. The form can be carried in paper or digital format (e.g. a photo or PDF stored on a smart phone or tablet).

Please review the important information available at www.ba.com/youngflyer in detail, together with this form.

- The minimum age of a person permitted to travel alone on British Airways operated flights is 14 years old in all circumstances. By signing this form, you give permission for the young flyer(s) listed below to travel unaccompanied by someone over the age of 16 years old and acknowledge that the young person(s) shall be booked to travel as an adult. BA shall not bear any parental responsibility for the young flyer(s).
- You understand that adverse weather or other events may occasionally result in disruption entailing an aircraft diversion and/or overnight stay at, or away from, the scheduled point of departure/destination.
- For young flyer(s) on a flight affected by a disruption event leading to a significant delay, or an overnight stay required at the scheduled point of departure (either before the outbound or return flight), you agree that you and the relevant person that you list below can be contacted to arrange the young flyer(s)’s overnight accommodation and personally collect the young flyer(s) from the airport. If contact cannot be made with you or the listed contact below, you give permission for British Airways or a representative of British Airways to contact local law enforcement and/or child protection authorities to provide advice and/or care.
- For young flyer(s) on a flight affected by a disruption event where an aircraft diversion and/or overnight stay is required away from the scheduled point of departure/destination (including indirect flights connecting through London Heathrow and London Gatwick Airports), you confirm that you understand that some taxi and hotel providers require formal, written consent for young flyers(s) to use their services and/or be unaccompanied. By signing this form, you hereby confirm that you give your consent to the young flyer(s) travelling by taxi and staying in a hotel room unaccompanied.
